I, _____ understand by enrolling for membership into the AutoCare Elite Business Development Group, I will uphold to the best of my ability, the NAPA AutoCare Business Code of Ethics. (See AutoCare website for list of Ethics)

I understand that my BDG dues will be billed to me every month in the amount of $100 and NAPA Auto Parts will bill my account. NAPA Auto Parts will keep the funds in a separate account for use by the BDG which will be decided by majority vote. I understand if I retain membership for an entire 12 month period, the BDG will pay for my AutoCare Dues in full and that these dues are non-refundable if I decide to terminate my membership.

As a member of the AutoCare Elite Business Development Group, I understand the information that is presented in meetings, web pages, forums and all other forms of communication by the BDG or NAPA Auto Parts is used for the growth of the individual shop and the BDG as a whole and if at any time it is deemed that there is misuse of information in any other form it is the right of the BDG, by majority vote, to dissolve the membership of the offended shop from the BDG. At that time, it is up to the Board Members of the BDG to determine if the Shop may be eligible for reinstatement within a 12 month period by vote.

As a member of this BDG, I will conduct my business with professionalism and integrity, to maintain the Code of Ethics within my shop and with all members of the BDG. Any and all information that I gain with membership will be held with confidentiality.

I have agreed to the BDG By-Laws in which they are currently written realizing they are subject to change:
